Each year we honor and recognize all of our volunteer members who work so hard to keep our congregation up and running. We don’t often enough acknowledge their dedication and devotion to our Temple, to our ongoing programs and activities, and to the continued well-being of our congregation. From our elected officers and board members who manage and direct our fundraising, programming and personnel, to our ushers and greeters, our committee members and project workers and gardeners—you are the life-force of our congregation, its heart and soul, its arms and legs.

On Friday night, April 19 we will honor all of you at our Annual Volunteer Shabbat. And as a representative and model of the outstanding volunteer efforts of our membership, we will singly honor Don and Marilyn Kaczander Cohen, who have done so much, both individually and as a couple, to maintain and grow our congregation. They represent so well the devotion and dedication of all our members. Please join us on April 19 as we gratefully honor Don and Marilyn, and of course each of you—for it is because of all of you that we are the vibrant and active, warm and welcoming, family of families that is Temple Emanu-El.

Each Friday night in April will be its own special Sabbath celebration. Our First Friday Family Service, featuring our Youth Choir and family-friendly worship, will be followed by our Sisterhood Shabbat on April 12, a celebration of 100 years of the Women of Reform Judaism. The Friday after Volunteer Shabbat will be our Scholar-in-Residence Weekend as we welcome Dr. Joel Hoffman. Please note the complete schedule of his presentations on the front cover of this Bulletin (as well as my program on April 14). All of his four public programs are free and open to all, though we will sincerely appreciate your becoming an Adult Education Supporter or Patron for $150 or $225, which includes the Friday dinner, Saturday lunch and Saturday evening dessert reception.

From the 1st day of April and our Last Day of Pesach Worship and Yizkor, to the end of the month’s Scholar Weekend—this will be an exciting and very active April at Temple. Please join us for a wonderful month.

Evolution and Revolution of the Hebrew Alphabet

Rabbi Klein will present an Adult Education program at 9:30 am, Sunday, April 14 on the fascinating story of how the Hebrew alphabet became the first practical alphabet and forever changed Western Civilization. Drawing on the work of Dr. Joel Hoffman, our April 25-28 Scholar-in-Residence, Rabbi Klein will offer background information and his own insights on what will be Dr. Hoffman’s Sunday morning presentation.

Volunteer Shabbat – Friday, Apr 19

On Friday night, April 19 we will honor all of our volunteers whose dedication and commitment are so important to our congregation.

Representing all our volunteers, we will honor Don and Marilyn Cohen that night for their longtime contributions to our congregation, each in their own distinctive ways. Please join on the 19th as we gratefully honor Don and Marilyn and all of you who contribute so much to Temple Emanu-El. It is because of your devoted efforts that we continue to be the vibrant and active, warm and welcoming, family of families that is our congregation.

Our Passover seders generated enthusiasm among all of the ECC children. Excitement filled the air as I turned water into blood. Using Haggadot and props made by the children enhanced the storytelling of the Jewish plight for freedom.

As of this writing, we are all looking forward to our grandparents joining us on Friday, April 19th, for breakfast, shabbat and an intergenerational classroom activity with their grandchild.

Enrollment is well underway for the 2013-2014 camp and school year. Once again, we welcome mitzvah students to work at our summer program. Volunteers must commit to a three week session of camp.

I am looking forward to attending the Annual Early Childhood Director’s Retreat. The guest speaker this year is Anna Hartman, speaking on Jewish Leadership for a Unique Jewish Early Childhood Education in Metro Detroit.

I recently attended a meeting at Federation to discuss marketing strategies for ECC programs. Opinions were divided on strategies, and several ECC Directors and Executive Directors felt money would be better spent if it were available for scholarships for ECC education. Research indicates that when choosing a Jewish pre-school parents choices are most influenced by friends; they seek recommendations from their peers and go where their friends go. “Relationship weaving” is the phrase reflecting the interest of parents to form relationships with other families.

In looking ahead - mark your calendars for the Young Masters Art Exhibit, Wednesday evening, May 8th, at the Temple. Children have the opportunity to choose their favorite works of art, which our teachers have been keeping in individual portfolios. The art work is framed for display throughout the Temple. As you “kvell” over your child’s creativity, take a moment to observe the developmental stages reflected in the art of the different age groups. Following the exhibit everyone is welcome to join us in the Esther Katzman Hall for an ice cream social. We welcome all volunteers to help us set up and take down the art work. No experience needed! We always enjoy the participation of our alumni families.

Eileen Brand, Director,

Dennis grew up in the Corktown neighborhood of Detroit, one block south of Tiger Stadium, and was in the right place at the right time to land a bat boy job that most young boys only dream about. He started out in the visitor’s clubhouse 1972-1973 and moved to the Tigers home clubhouse in 1974-1975.

He was in the clubhouse with the Oakland A’s after they defeated the Tigers for the 1972 American League pennant, and was on the visitors bench in a California Angels uniform when Nolan Ryan pitched his second career no-hitter against the home town Tigers. Dennis was Norm Cash and Al Kaline’s last bat boy.

He will share excerpts from his upcoming book.

A hot dog lunch will be provided. Please join Temple Brotherhood for a morning of great baseball memories.
Teen Shabbat April 26th at Friday Night Services

Last year teens led a Saturday morning service, this year, on April 26th, Friday Night services will be led by Temple teens, with the help of Cantorial Soloist Kelly Onickel. The teens will lead Hebrew and English prayers, play music and share their own readings and reflections. In the spirit of the Scholar-in-Residence weekend, during which this service will take place, teens briefly share their reasons and experiences continuing their Jewish education post Bar/Bat Mitzvah. Monday Night School will bake items for the oneg. After the service teens are invited to their own oneg and social event hosted by TEMTY. Teens are not required to be enrolled to participate, those who are interested may contact Geoff Berdy (educator@emanuel-mich.org) or Kelly Onickel (kaonickel@comcast.com) for more information.

Community Garden’s Second Annual Earth Day Celebration April 21

Last year we inaugurated the community garden at Temple Emanu-El in partnership with our neighbors Jewish Senior Life and the Jewish Community Center. This year we continue what will become an annual tradition. Students will help clean up and compost the garden beds in preparation for spring planting. We will again make signs in Russian, Hebrew and English identifying what is growing in each bed. Students will also learn about Jewish ecological values and how innovative irrigation systems used in gardens like ours were developed in Israel. The event will kickoff at 9:00 am in the garden with local dignitaries, including the mayor of Oak Park, present to help celebrate the garden’s special partnerships. Volunteers are needed. Please call 248-967-4023 or email educator@emanuel-mich.org.

Thanks to PTO Cirque De Purim Sponsors, Planners & Volunteers

Much thanks to all who helped make this Parent Temple Organization planned event a success, including committee members David Newman, Ivan Katz, Michelle Keys, Shari Bills, Ruth Hurwitz and Russell Wise and sponsors: the Families Katz, Newman, Wise, Findling, Lipton, Kayes, Klein, Collins, Hart, Cohen, Cooper, Schwanki and Krasnick, and businesses: Sands Barbershop in Royal Oak, Gordy Oliva Remodeling, Alternatives in Advertising, Doggy in the Window, Huntington Technology, Anabelle’s Catering and Star Trax, also Temple Arms: Social Action, Brotherhood and Sisterhood. Thanks to all the kids who put on a great show and the volunteers who made it happen!

Young Family Shabbat Returns April 12

Join ECC and religious school staff Marcia Rosen and Shari Bills as they host their first Young Family Shabbat. There will be singing, and a story, kids will make a “Torah Puppet”, a child friendly dinner with pasta, chicken fingers, vegetables salad, challah and grape juice. Families that attend will also get a CD of Shabbat music. Please RSVP to 248-967-4023 or educator@emanuel-mich.org.

“Explore Israel!” Everyone is Invited

On May 5, from 9:30-11:30 am, the religious school will host “Explore Israel” an event open to the entire community. Religious school classes will each be creating experiential activities allowing guests to explore aspects of Israeli society. Features include: “Café Ivrit” where you’ll order Israeli treats in Hebrew and view art work by Israeli artists. At “Mu-seun Shaavah” the “wax museum” great figures from the history of Israel will come to life. You’ll also have a chance to visit the Western Wall, a kibbutz and an archeological dig. We’ll celebrate Israel through live music and also give folks the chance to try some Israeli dancing. The event is open to all members and their guests free of charge. Volunteers are needed. Please call 248-967-4023 or email educator@emanuel-mich.org
Housekeeping notes:

Please watch your snail and email boxes for details on:
- Free dues raffle
- Annual Membership renewal packet in early May
- Notice of the Annual Meeting and Congregational Dinner (May 28) where we present the budget and elect trustees for 2013-14

This is a busy time in the office. We are working on the items mentioned above (budget, membership renewal materials, free dues raffle) which take time and thoughtful input from lay people and professional staff. And we are becoming very excited as the May 18 Legacy of Leadership Gala honoring Lois & Milt Zussman and Julie & Rick Zussman approaches.

Planning for 2013-14!

On Tuesday, April 30 at 7:00 p.m., senior staff along with representatives of all committees and arms meet to review/plan calendar items for the fiscal year that begins July 1. Please make sure your group is represented at this important meeting! Draft planning calendars will be sent to chairpersons in late March. Please fill them in with your desired dates for meetings and events and return them to the office by April 15 so we have time to put desired dates into a draft “master calendar.” This will be distributed at discussed on the April 30 meeting.

Sponsor an Oneg, a Kiddush or a Wine & Cheese Pre-Service Oneg

in honor of a simcha—anniversary, birthday, graduation or other special event. Or, you may wish to honor the memory of a loved one.

The minimum costs of sponsorship (effective September 2011) are:
- Friday Oneg: $125
- Saturday Kiddush: $75
- Wine & Cheese Oneg: $100

We recognize our Oneg sponsors and the occasions for their sponsorship in the service bulletin. It is possible for more than one family to sponsor an oneg.

Please contact Nancy in the office for more information and to select a date.

Temple Annual Membership Commitment for 2013-14

It’s time again to start talking about and planning for the next fiscal year at Temple. The Financial Obligations Committee and Budget Committees began meeting in February to make sure we can present a balanced budget proposal to the Board for approval in May. That means that, in early May, it will be time for you to recommit to your annual support for Temple Emanu-El. Specifically, it’s time to talk about membership pledge forms and member dues. Your annual dues are the source/foundation of Temple’s viability. Dues make up almost 60% of temple revenues. And all of us should be very proud that we have a collection rate of 96% on dues pledges! Clearly our members understand how important it is that pledges be fulfilled so we can plan our cash flow and know we can rely on membership pledge money being received. (As always, for those members not able to commit to full Temple dues, use of the AGI table or the extraordinary dues adjustment process is available.)

Dues payments can be made by automatic charges to a credit card and now credit card payments can be made with American Express as well as Visa and MasterCard.

Let’s remember another important aspect to membership. That is keeping our spiritual house - our Temple - building in good condition. This is made possible by your payments on the building fund assessment. This aspect of your membership needs the same commitment as that made for dues to sustain the physical space where we gather together.

Lastly the temple has established a Financial Obligations Committee composed of volunteer temple members. If you need to talk about your particular situation, Susan Kirschner is always available, but you can also speak to a member of the FOC and request an in-person meeting.

Please return your pledge forms early this year and commit to a pledge you can honor.

We thank you so much for your commitment and for your payments on those commitments! I look forward to seeing you around Temple.

Richard Gold,
Treasurer and Chair of the Financial Obligations Committee
Brovary

Once again, Lynn Cooper’s class rose to the challenge of continuing to amass their tzedakah to total $308 to accomplish their goal of $300 per semester. This was accomplished because many students contributed EVERY week, some parents MATCHED their kids donations, and Mrs. Cooper instills a zealous enthusiasm to GIVE!

The following letter was written by Laura Topf:

Dear Congregation,

The 5th Grade is participating in an ongoing project. It is called the 5th Grade Brovary project. We are donating money to Brovary. Brovary is a small Jewish community in Ukraine. They need money to support their Jewish community. In the past, Ms. Cooper’s class has paid for matzoh, challah, candles, etc. If you ever see Ms. Cooper, give her a hug and a quarter: Every penny counts. Sincerely, Mrs Cooper’s Class

The Social Action Committee thanks ALL the students and parents who continue their Brovary mitzvot. Soon, they will have their Passover matzoh while we remind them that Temple Emanu-El wishes them “Hag Sameyah!”

SmartBites

HEALTHY SNACK FOOD DRIVE

Individual Sized Snacks appropriate for the SmartBites program:

- Dried fruit – raisin, mangos, apricots, bananas, apples
- Nuts and seeds: low sodium, dry roasted is best e.g., almonds, sunflower seeds, pumpkin seeds
- Individual cereal boxes, whole grain (no sugar added)
- High fiber granola bars
- Whole wheat crackers
- Individual canned 100% fruit juices (not juice boxes)

SmartBites bags are packed by school-aged children volunteers that come to the Gleaners Kids Helping Kids® program.

The SmartBites program provides 70 low-income neighborhood schools in Oakland, Macomb and Wayne counties with healthful snacks to distribute to hungry students during the school day or at after school tutoring programs. SmartBites bags from Gleaners are filled with 30 items/bag including individual packages of snacks like those listed above. The 30-item bags are bundled in boxes to provide nutritional snacks for students for one month.

Please bring donations of individual healthy snacks to the Temple and deposit them in the Gleaners boxes in the lobby and school entrance between April 8th & May 5th.

Donations (by check) are welcome too. Please make checks payable to Temple Emanu-El (not Gleaners). Your contributions allow Gleaners to purchase triple the number of individual-sized healthy snacks from their Food Bank suppliers.

Please Participate in Shabbat Worship

Members of the congregation are invited to participate (with Hebrew and/or English readings or non-reading roles) in upcoming Friday evening and Saturday morning worship services. Please sign-up on the blue sheet in the Rosen Foyer and Rabbi Klein will contact you.
Calling all Congregants for Rabbi’s Party in June

As you know, our celebration for Rabbi Klein becoming Rabbi Emeritus at Temple will take place on Saturday evening, June 15, 2013, at 7 p.m. We would like to present him with a collection of memories from any and all members of our Temple family. Your contribution may be written, a single or group of photos, or even DVD clips. However, we would like everything (except the DVD clips) to be on the same type of paper so that we can create a special memory book.

A downloadable template page will be available on the website or you may pick up a hard copy in the Temple office.

Please return your submission to Kelly Onickel’s office no later than May 10. Please do not bend the pages. If you need to mail your submission, please do it in a large envelope - the pages will be 8 1/2 x 11 inches. For further information, please contact Marcia or Michael Leibson at 248 967-0729 or at auntiestan@aol.com.

We know that Rabbi Klein will be happy to receive memories from people of all ages!
